We will meet at the Royal Air Maroc counter at JFK airport at 4:00 pm for a nonstop flight to Casablanca. Time TBD.

DAY TWO: CASABLANCA/RABAT

L, D

Arrive at the Med V airport and transfer to your hotel in Rabat for time off to relax in the morning. Your lunch will be served at your hotel included. Meet with our national guide for an afternoon tour of the capital city of Morocco. We will visit the Chellah Roman ruins, Oudayas Kasbah, Mohamed V Mausoleum, medieval Hassan Tower, and the exterior of the current Royal Palace. Return to your hotel for dinner.

DAY THREE: MEKNES/VOLUBILIS/FES

B, L, D

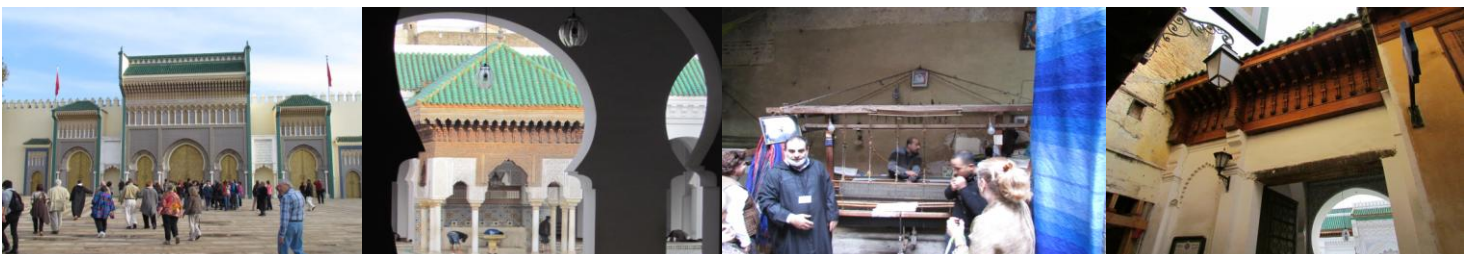

Enjoy your breakfast and check out. This morning we will head with our national guide to Fes via Meknes and Volubilis. Lunch will be served at the Terrab Restaurant or similar Moroccan cuisine. Our morning guided tour of this 17th century historic city of Meknes includes the Yacoub El Mansour Gateways, the Palace Tomb of Moulay Ismail, the ruins of the vast imperial stables, if time permits, and granaries. After lunch, we will drive to the Roman ruins and mosaics of Volubilis. It was once upon a time the capital of the Roman province of Mauritania and the house of Sylene, Antony and Cleopatra's daughter, who married the Berber King Juba of Gallienus. Arrive in Fes the spiritual, intellectual and once capital city of Morocco. Check in to your hotel. Dinner at your hotel restaurant included.

DAY FOUR: FES

B, L, D

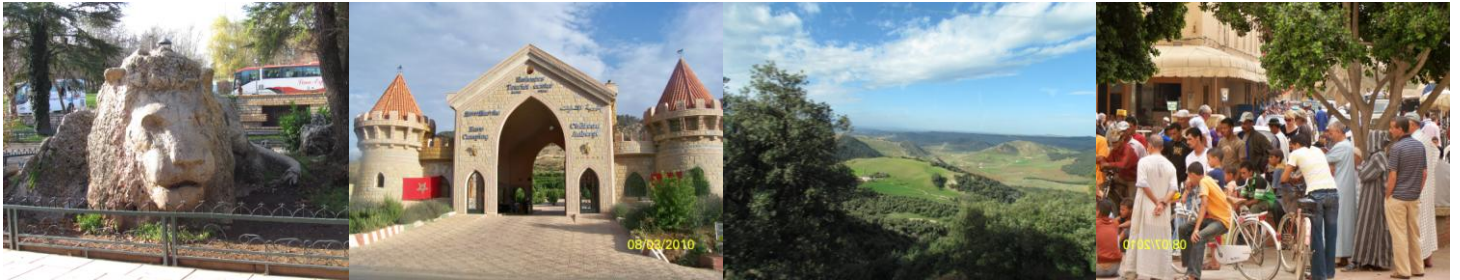

After breakfast, we will join our national tour guide for a full day sightseeing tour of Fes, the one of the Imperial cities in Morocco and UNESCO World Heritage Site. The tour includes the Gateway of the Royal Palace, the Jewish Quarter "Mellah", the 15th century Borj Nord or north fort, and the 9th century world's oldest university. We will stop at local handicrafts factories such as pottery, brass, textiles, and a bakery where everything is made in the traditional Moroccan way. Return to your hotel and freshen up for dinner. Enjoy your dinner and musical entertainment at the famous Al Fassia Restaurant.

DAY FIVE: MARRAKECH

B, D

Today after breakfast and check out we will head for Marrakech via Ifrane, an alpine style village, and Azrou. Lunch this time is on the road on own. We will drive through magical scenery at the foot of the middle Atlas where all kind of fruits trees are planted such as oranges, grapefruit, apricots, apples and figs. You should also expect a few short breaks along the road where you will have the opportunity to meet with the locals. Arrive and check in to your hotel. Dinner at your hotel is included.

DAY SIX: MARRAKECH

B, D

Enjoy your breakfast this morning at your hotel included. Meet our national guide for a full day sightseeing tour of the pearl of the south. This imperial city was founded in the 11th century and once upon a time was the capital city of Morocco. Lunch and free time for shopping on own at the famous Djamaa El Fn'a square. Our visits will include the Koutoubia Mosque, known as a masterpiece of the Almohades art, the Bahia Palace, Dar Si Said Museum and the Menara garden. Return to your hotel and freshen up for dinner. Transfer in a horse drawn carriage to a local restaurant. Return to your hotel and retire for the night.

DAY SEVEN: MARRAKECH, ESSAOUIRA, MARRAKECH

After breakfast, we will depart for a day trip to the coastal city Essaouira, a favorite vacation spot for several 1970s rock stars. This former Portuguese fort, once called Mogador, means “fortress surrounded by ramparts”. Essaouira is also known for production of Argan oil. On the road, we will stop by a women’s cooperative where you will witness the making of Argan oil and other related products. Lunch will be served at a local seafood restaurant. With our guide we will visit the medina, the old Mellah or Jewish quarter, and the North Bastion. Enjoy some free time for shopping. Later return to your hotel for dinner.

DAY EIGHT: EI JADIDA/ CASABLANCA

B, D

Leave Marrakech for Casablanca via El Jadida with a brief driving city tour of this former Portuguese city. Lunch will be the road on own. Resume our drive to Casablanca where we will visit if time permits the exterior of the Hassan II Mosque, the Habous shopping quarter, the Royal Palace exterior, and the Mohammed V square. Arrive at your hotel and check in. Farewell dinner tonight will be served at the famous Rick's Café Restaurant owned by a former American diplomat. Return to your hotel and retire for the night.

DAY NINE: MED V INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT
